Articles of Faith

We Believe...

The words of the original writings of the Old and New Testaments are God-breathed. Therefore, they are inerrant and carry the authority of God (Psalm 12:6; Proverbs 30:5; II Timothy 3:16; II Peter 1:20-21).

The Scriptures we now possess have been preserved by God without significant variation and therefore are the very Word of God (Matthew 5:18; 24:35; John 10:35).

One true God eternally exists in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Isaiah 48:16; Matthew 3:16-17; II Corinthians 13:14).

Jesus Christ is fully God and fully man. Having been conceived with a sinless human nature by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary, He laid down His life and shed His blood for the sins of the world. He arose bodily from the grave and is seated on the right hand of the Majesty on high, where He ever lives to make intercession for the saints (Luke 1:35; John 1:1, 14; Philippians 2:5-8; I Timothy 3:16; I Corinthians 15:1-6; Hebrews 1:3; 7:25).

The Holy Spirit is the person within the Godhead Who was sent to convict the world of what sin, righteousness, and judgment are. He permanently indwells every believer since Pentecost and baptizes (places) each believer into the Body of Christ (John 16:7-11; Romans 8:9; I Corinthians 6:19-20; 12:13).

Man was created in the image of God and, through man's act of sin, brought physical and spiritual death to the entire world. All human beings since Adam and Eve are born with a sin nature and are under the power and penalty of sin. All who do not receive God's forgiveness will suffer the righteous penalty of spending eternity in the Lake of Fire (Genesis 1:26; Romans 3:9-12; 5:12; John 3:36; Revelation 20:15).

Jesus Christ is God's substitutionary sacrifice for the sin of the world. His death on the cross is the full and only satisfaction of the just demands of a holy God to judge sin. All who receive Christ by faith alone are declared righteous on the grounds of His shed blood and receive eternal life and cleansing from all sin (Isaiah 53:5-6; Romans 3:24-28; Hebrews 9:26; 10:12-14; I John 1:7; 2:1-2).

The believer in Jesus Christ is eternally secure in Him. Having passed from death unto life, the believing sinner has been sealed by the Holy Spirit unto the day of redemption and will never perish (John 5:24; 10:27-29; Ephesians 4:30; Jude 24; I Peter 1:5).

I have completely read the articles of faith and agree to be taught in accordance with the beliefs stated therein. I acknowledge that the NSTM administration reserves the right to dismiss or require the withdrawal of students who fail to abide by the standards of conduct indicated in the school catalog or disregard the principles stated in the articles of faith. NSTM also reserves the right to make necessary changes to school policies at any time. I realize that I am financially responsible to pay my account if I am accepted as a student.

I certify that the contents of this application are complete and accurate.
